

Office of the Mayor
City of Fayetteville
Proclamation

WHEREAS: Christine Smith Johnson passed away on Wednesday, July 13, 2016 surrounded by her family, and

WHEREAS: Christine spent the majority of her 78 years in Fayetteville loving and serving this community, as the first woman to lead the Fayetteville Noon Lions Club and as a successful businesswoman, including as co-founder of Ozark Mountain Air, Inc., and

WHEREAS: Christine was a talented distance runner, competing successfully in many local races and could be seen throughout Fayetteville on the trails and sidewalks, and

WHEREAS: Christine was a beloved wife, mother, sister, grandmother, friend, caregiver, and beacon of kindness, and is survived by her husband, daughter, son, four sisters and one brother, five grandchildren and four great-grandchildren all of whom have worked and lived and loved in Fayetteville, and

WHEREAS: Christine's home in the heart of Fayetteville has served as a meeting place and sanctuary for countless friends, and

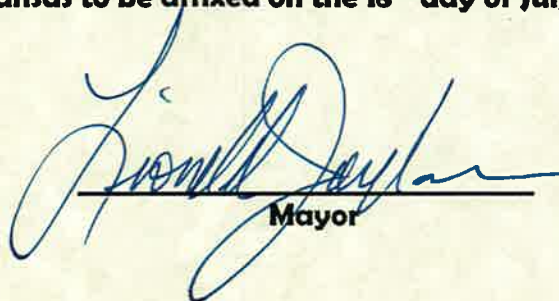

WHEREAS: Christine has been laid to rest in Fayetteville and will continue to watch over her community with eternal love,

NOW THEREFORE, I, Lioneld Jordan, Mayor of the City of Fayetteville, Arkansas do hereby proclaim Monday, July 18, 2016 as a day of memory for in Fayetteville, Arkansas and urge all citizens to join me in honoring the life and legacy of this incredible woman.

"CHRISTINE SMITH JOHNSON"

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Fayetteville, Arkansas to be affixed on the 18th day of July, 2016.

Mayor

Attest:

City Clerk

